

I am writing to urge you NOT to tamper with the no-call rules that are currently in effect in Indiana. We entered our name on the no-call list because of the inordinately high numbers of solicitors who were constantly tying-up our phone line and interrupting us at inconvenient times. We're very pleased with the stand our Attorney General took and don't want to see our phone privacy laws weakened.